COLLECTING PERSONAL INFORMATION SO AS TO PREVENT EASY IDENTIFICATION

Use of cookies

The Company's website features content that uses technology called "cookies". Cookies are small text files that are transferred from our internet server to the hard disks on users' computers in order to identify individual users' computers and monitor their browsing activity. The Company's website transfers and configures cookies on users' computers when they access online services such as members-only pages. Although cookies can be used to identify a computer, they cannot be used to identify an individual providing that no personal information is inputted.

The Company uses this technology for the sole purpose of making its website more convenient and user-friendly. Details of browsing activities obtained from users' computers are not recorded or kept in a format that would enable individual users to be identified.

Although it is possible to adjust the settings on your internet browser to prevent such data from being collected, please be aware that this may prevent you from accessing some of the features offered via the Company's website.

Use of statistical tools

Certain pages on the Company's website use statistical tools to monitor access figures. The data collected via these statistical tools cannot be used to identify specific individuals and is only used for purposes such as making improvements to the website.

PROCEDURES FOR REQUESTING THE DISCLOSURE OF, ALTERATIONS OR ADDITIONS TO, THE DELETION OR REMOVAL OF, SUSPENSION OF ACCESS TO OR SUSPENSION OF THE THIRD PARTY PROVISION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION, OR FOR FILING A COMPLAINT

If you have any questions regarding the procedures for requesting the disclosure of your personal information or other such actions and any associated charges, or if you wish to file a complaint regarding the Company's handling of personal information, please contact the Managing Partner via the email address or telephone number below. The Company will only use personal information obtained as a result of any such inquiry for the purpose of responding to the relevant inquiry. Depending on the nature of the inquiry, the Company may need to check the identity of the inquiring party to confirm that they are the individual concerned. The Company will disclose, make any alterations or additions to, delete or remove, suspend access to or suspend the third party provision of all relevant personal information as requested wherever possible.
